

I strongly oppose the Consumer Bankers Association and their attempt to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers.